

I am a resident of New Jersey and I support our Do Not Call List law. We are satisfied that it is more stringent than the federal ban because we prefer to not receive telemarketing calls throughout the day and evening. Many of us have switched our home number land line telephones to our cell phones. Telemarketing calls to our cell phones result in extra charges for us. Leave our law alone. Thank you.